

REACH CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE

2 June 2011

Based on information provided by our suppliers, this document certifies that ALL Phil and Teds products are REACH compliant.

Phil and Teds can confirm the presence of 0.017% DEHP Phthalate in the hand grip of the Phil and Teds Vibe and Dash strollers. Phil and Teds can also confirm 0.049% DEHP Phthalate in the inner tube of the tires used on the Vibe and Dash strollers. These percentages are below what is considered to be a safe limit in any child's product material. Phthalate is also found inside the chest strap adjuster of the harness worn by the caregiver on the Escape and Metro carriers. The total quantity of Phthalate in these products is 0.017% and 0.021% per weight of article respectively. The quantity of DEHP in any complete Phil and Teds product is well within REACH regulations.

The above statement is supported by the following:

- As part of Phil and Teds compliance activities, compliance staff have undergone REACH training with Intertek Testing Services, Taiwan.
- Through the creation and maintenance of detailed Bills of Materials for all products, Phil and Teds are able to assess all unique materials for possible non-compliance.
- Phil and Teds monitor the status of the candidate list and information from the ECHA Press room so as to provide immediate updates to Phil and Teds supply chain.
- Our products are categorised as "articles" under REACH.
- It is not intended that our product release substances during normal use.
- With regards to the Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) candidate list (dated 28 October 2008), Phil and Teds products do not contain more than 0.1% by weight per article of any substance on the SVHC candidate list.
- Phil and Teds maintain a database of declarations and certificates from our suppliers to support this certification.
- Phil and Teds conduct random chemical tests on high risk products to verify continued compliance.

Declarations and certificates are held at 102-112 Daniell Street, Wellington, New Zealand, email certificates@philandteds.com, Phone +64 4 3800 833 extn 720.

Phil and Teds Certificates of Compliance are periodically updated and are maintained on our website at www.philandteds.com/certification.
